Located on Historic Cape Ann 30 miles northeast of Boston, Gordon College is part of the educational center of New England. Harvard, MIT, Tufts and Brandies are neighbors, along with the numerous other educational institutions in the area whose names are synonymous with the educational enterprise in New England. New England—rich in history, beautiful for location—is the cradle of American Education. Bunker Hill, Plymouth Rock, Old Ironsides, Historic Salem, Concord and Lexington are all within easy driving of Gordon's lovely 800 acre campus. At the very edge of the campus is Route No. 128, now known as "Electronics Avenue, U. S. A.", because of the numerous new plants which have located along its 81 miles. To the west it circles greater Boston connecting with the Massachusetts Turnpike. Here it continues on to the south and Cape Cod. To the east it stretches to the tip of Cape Ann and Gloucester with its fishing fleet and picturesque rockport, home of an artist colony. U. S. Rt. No. 1, which crosses No. 128 a few miles to the east, is the gateway to upper New England with its many ski resorts, pine-rimmed lakes, Maine's rocky coast and breath-taking white mountains dominated by Mt. Washington.

Conferees will be housed at the Sheppard and Lewis Hall from Sunday evening, August 17, until Friday noon, August 22. Meals will be available in the Lane Student Center on the Conference Dates. The Snack Bar will also be open at appropriate times during the convention. Registration will take place in the Art Gallery of the Lane Student Center. Meetings will be held in the Student Center and the Wynn Library lecture hall. The closing service of worship will be held in Prince Chapel.

The registraion fee is $4 for the entire program. Student rates are $2, and single day registration is $2.

Housing Costs:

Adults—1 to a room $4.50 first day, each succeeding day $3.50.

Adults—2 to a room $4.00 first day, each succeeding day $3.00.
