ASA NewsNote July 8, 2013

Dear @@first_name@@,

There is still time to register for our annual meeting in Nashville on July 19-22. Check out the program and come interact with the speakers and other attendees. Lodging can no longer be guaranteed but check with Marty Herdrich for options. Last day to purchase a ticket to the banquet is July 11. You don't want to miss the special speaker and musician, Dr. Ming Wang.

CHRISTIAN WOMEN IN SCIENCE

Support the women of ASA as they seek to organize an affiliation for Christian women in science. An organization meeting will be held in Nashville on Saturday night, July 20 at 8PM CDT. You can join by teleconference if you are unable to attend in person. Men who wish to support the effort are also welcome. See this page for details.

Website tips:

Check out the "Meetings and Conferences" tab under the Forums menu for travel tips to Nashville.

WELCOME!

NEW ASA CHAPTER

The NASHVILLE CHAPTER OF ASA has now been officially organized and is the official host of our annual meeting this year. Todd Lake is the contact for the group and Bryce Sullivan and Stephen Murphree joined Todd as the charter members.

The Nashville area boasts many leading universities and there are ample opportunities for fruitful dialog on issues of science and faith.

IDEAS FOR CHAPTER ACTIVITIES

Is your local ASA chapter looking for ideas of what to do for meetings? Well-known speakers and high-profile authors are always a good bet but aren't so easy to organize. Why not consider a regular meeting that leverages PSCF? Pick an article or two in each issue for discussion. Or select one of the books from the book reviews and discuss it in detail.

JOIN OR START A CHAPTER

Check our website for the list of local chapters and groups in your area. Sign up, if you haven't done so already, for a chapter in your area. If you don't see one near you, why not start one? It's easy--just fill out the application form and get the signature of 3 ASA members.
